Hixburg

Hixburg, May 7.- The Virginia Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs of District III meeting will be held at Quaker Memorial Presbyterian Church in Campbell County on Thursday, May 12.

Miss Maude Wallace, "a wonderful speaker," will deliver the Federation message.

Mrs. Lacy Dickerson plans to attend and take other members of the Pamplin Home Demonstration Club in her car.

Mr. Watkins McPhillips and family, of Richmond were the week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McPhillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shoaf, of Mount Ulla, N. C., were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. Flossie Hix Ervin, who is nursing Mrs. Maggie Hix.

Mr. J. D. Hix, of Thomasville, N. C., is expected to be an over-night guest in the same home on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Miss Carrie Hix is to leave for Richmond on Monday, May 9, for a vacation.

If anyone could be irreplaceable, Mr. Ernest Henson Carson, is that person. He was the most regular attendant at Walker's Presbyterian Church Sunday School and church, of which he was an elder.

With a firm handshake and a good word, he greeted other members of the congregation.

Outstanding in his life were two characteristics: loyalty and integrity. He was devoted to his family, his church and his friends.

He passed away on April 29, and was laid to rest in the Methodist Cemetery in Prospect on Sunday, May 1.

The church could hold only part of the crowd that gathered to pay their last respects.

There was such a profusion of flowers, they not only filled the front of the church but most of the windows.

The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Dr. Twyman Williams, and the Rev. Philip Thomas, of the Methodist Church.
